Native Youth and Culture Fund
2017 Introduction and Q&A Session

Facilitated by Abi Whiteing, Program Officer, Kendall Tallmadge, Grants & Program Officer, and Autumn Romero, Project Coordinator
Our Mission:

We invest in and create innovative institutions and models that strengthen asset control and support economic development for American Indian people and their communities.
Our Strategies & Key Areas of Work
NYCF Priority Areas

• Preserving, strengthening or renewing cultural and/or spiritual practices, beliefs and values.
• Engaging both youth and elders in activities that demonstrate methods for documenting traditional knowledge, practices and/or beliefs, where culturally appropriate.
• Increasing youth leadership and their capacity to lead through integrated educational or mentoring programs.
• Increasing access to and sharing of cultural customs and beliefs through the use of appropriate technologies (traditional and/or modern), as a means of reviving or preserving tribal language, arts, history or other culturally relevant topics.
Eligibility

All entities that apply must be located in the United States or U.S. Territories and must be Native-controlled nonprofit organizations or Native-controlled community organizations.

• Federal- and state-recognized tribal governments;
• Native-controlled 501(c)(3) nonprofits;
• Native-controlled community organizations with fiscal sponsorship; and/or
• Native § 7871 organizations.

Grants under this project will not be made to public schools.
