TEN WAYS YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

- 1 Select a book and read it with your child or a young person you know.
- 2 Share this list with librarians at your local public library and suggest they get the books and e-books for their collections that they can feature in library displays all year long.
- 3 Use the hashtag #NativeReads and share comments about your favorite #NativeReads on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest, Snapchat or other platforms.
- 4 Share this list with your local bookstore and ask them to set up a display in the store, and feature one or more of the books on their website.
- 5 Share the reading list with your local bookstore and encourage them to purchase some of them to have on hand for the local community.
- 6 Provide a quantity of copies of the list to both libraries and local bookstores, for them to hand out to potential customers.
- 7 Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper and public radio or television stations and ask them to do a story on the books, in honor of Native American Heritage Month and throughout the year. The story could ask parents to choose books from the list for their own children to read and then share with their friends.
- 8 Give the list to the librarians at your local elementary, middle and high school.
- 9 Purchase copies of the books or e-books and donate them to a teacher who works with that age level.
- 10 Organize a book club in your community or virtually online with your friends on Facebook or Goodreads. After you've read the book, post your thoughts on social media.
