ABOUT
FIRST NATIONS DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

STRENGTHENING
American Indian
Communities & Economies
for 37 years

Our Mission... to strengthen American Indian economies to support healthy Native communities. We invest in and create innovative institutions and models that strengthen asset control and support economic development for American Indian people and their communities.
OUR APPROACH

First Nations has always been exclusively committed to Native control of tribal assets and to restore control and promote culturally-compatible stewardship of those assets.

ASSET-BUILDING DEFINED

A positive and collaborative approach, asset-building focuses on cultivating traditional knowledge and practices, and creating new ones to build Native capacities, capabilities and communities.

WHY ASSET-BUILDING WORKS

Native nations are uniquely knowledgeable about their own communities. They know the strengths, challenges and needs of their communities better than outside agencies. It strengthens the effectiveness of Native nations to create solutions to their own challenges and allows them to best leverage their resources on their own terms. In brief, in the long term it works because it helps protect and enhance tribal sovereignty.

ASSETS IN NATIVE COMMUNITIES

First Nations’ Native Agriculture and Food Systems Initiative (NAFSI) Framework

Native Food Sovereignty

Native communities create policies and programs aimed at Native food systems control and build strong Native institutions and governance capacity.

Traditional agriculture practices revitalize ceremonies of planting seasons, build the social bonds of the production process and strengthen the relationship of Native peoples to the land that sustains us.

Economic Development

The development and cultivation of food markets and businesses fosters the entrepreneurial spirit of Native peoples that leads to economic development.

Health

Increasing access to locally produced healthy foods will reduce diet-related diseases and improve the health of Native peoples.

Native-controlled 501(c)(3) nonprofits
Grant Priorities

Priority will be given to projects demonstrating:

• Innovative change to existing policies or creation of new policies improving nutrition and health outcomes for Native people

• The ability and/or experience necessary to successfully promote and pass the proposed policy

• Strong leadership that reflects the community served
Allowable Activities

Selected grantees under this opportunity must use funding to advance Native American nutritional and health-related policies, policymaking approaches, community power, and change at the tribal, local, state and national levels. Projects should work to improve nutrition and health outcomes, including but not limited to leading community organizing, increasing Native access to healthy foods, nutrition and health outcomes. Youth-led projects are encouraged, as are projects that include engagement of youth advocates.

Examples of allowable activities under this funding opportunity include, but are not limited to:

• Policy advocacy
• Policy drafting
• Policy implementation
• Policy Research
• “Ground-softening” directly leading to policy work
• Policy meeting
Unallowable Activities

Examples of unallowable activities under this funding opportunity include:

• Lobbying
• Entertainment
• Construction
• Other non-advocacy expenses
Grant Requirements

• Post-Award Grantee Orientation Webinar
• Reporting & Evaluation – Progress and Final Report including evaluation data
• Regular data collection required using First Nations’ data tracking tools
• Cooperation with TA Provider
Proposal Requirements

- A brief history of your organization or tribal program
- A description of the project and whom it will serve
- At least three specific and measurable objectives to be accomplished during the project year
- A summary of project activities and how they will be implemented
- An estimated budget for the proposed project
OBJECTIVES

Specific: What, exactly, in detail, do you want to achieve?

Measurable: How will you know when you’ve reached your goal? Quantify it!

Achievable: What resources are needed – do you have them (including time)?

Realistic and Relevant – What’s the outcome – the change – you’re expecting?

Timed – Break it into steps. When will each step be completed?
OBJECTIVES

Keep it simple: By (when), (who & how many), will do (what)

Example 1: By July 31, 2019, 30 youth will have participated in three workshops on farming and harvesting traditional rice for community consumption.

Tip: Your dates must be varied so progress and activities can be measured!
Why do the recipients need the funds?

What specific conditions would you like to change?

Include demographics and other identifying information.

Include both qualitative and quantitative data, statistics, and anecdotes that tell the story of your organization’s work and who you will serve.
